August events planned for Sagamore West Farmers Market

West Lafayette, Ind. – July 28, 2008 – Several events are on tap in August at the Sagamore West Farmers Market, held from 3 to 6:30 p.m. every Wednesday at Cumberland Park in West Lafayette.

They include:

- August 6, Donetta Martin-Fisher, family nutrition program coordinator for Tippecanoe County, will be at the market from 3 to 5:30 p.m., distributing free information on healthy eating, nutrition and the food pyramid.
- August 13, West Lafayette Police Officer Janet Shepherd will bring her police car, bicycle and other equipment to the market and hand out information on bicycle safety and preventing identity theft.
- August 27, culinary expert Amy French will give a grilling demonstration and free samples from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

The market features about three dozen vendors selling fresh produce, meats, other food products and crafts. This year's "Green and Lean" market is supported by a $38,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Sagamore West Farmers Market is sponsored by West Lafayette Parks and Recreation and the Sagamore West Area Business Alliance.
